49 Stat. 3192; Treaty Series 889

The President of the United States of America and the Swiss Federal Council, animated by the desire of assuring a better administration of justice and suppressing crime on their territory and under their jurisdiction, have resolved to conclude an additional treaty enlarging the list of the crimes or offenses which are extraditable under the treaty concluded, May 14, 1900,¹ between the United States of America and Switzerland and have named as their Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America: Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America;

The Swiss Federal Council: Mr. Marc Peter, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Swiss Confederation to the United States of America;

Who, after having exchanged their full powers, which were found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The following crimes or offenses shall be added to the list of the crimes or offenses for which extradition may be granted, enumerated under Numbers 1 to 11 in Article II of the said treaty of May 14, 1900, to wit:

12. Fraudulent bankruptcy.

13. Intentional violation of the laws relative to narcotics provided such violation carries in Switzerland a penalty of one year's imprisonment or a more severe penalty, and that in the United States of America such violation is punishable as a felony.

ARTICLE II

This treaty shall be considered as an integral part of the treaty of May 14, 1900, and Article II of the latter treaty shall be read as if the list of the crimes or offenses which appear therein had from the first included the crimes or offenses which are added and specified under numbers 12 and 13 in Article I of this treaty.

This treaty shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties and shall become effective on the date of the exchange of the instruments of ratification, which shall take place at Washington as soon as possible.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the above-named Plenipotentiaries have signed this treaty and have hereunto affixed their seals.

DONE at Washington, in duplicate, in the English and French languages, the 10th day of January, 1935.
